

Hi,

You are cordially invited to a public forum on Saturday, May 30:

A Legal Challenge to Admission Policies of Prestigious Universities

This forum features prominent civil rights activist and experts, including:

Edward Blum and attorney Will Consovoy, as well as a slate of renowned experts on equal opportunities for education, including Ward Connerly, Prof. Chenming Hu and Yukong Zhao.

- Edward Blum-- Architect for litigations Students for Fair Admissions v. Harvard and Fisher v. University of Texas.
- William Consovoy -- Lead litigation attorney, former clerk to Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas
- Ward Connerly -- Architect of California's Proposition 209 prohibiting racial discrimination during college admission
- Prof. Chenming Hu -- Former board member of 80-20 PAC, Distinguished Chair Professor Emeritus at UC Berkeley.
- Yukong Zhao -- Architect of administrative complaint against Harvard University, Author

This forum will be held 2:00 – 4:30 PM on Saturday, May 30, 2015 at the Gold Building, 2077 Gold St., Alviso (part of San Jose), CA 95002. FREE ADMISSION, but any amount of donation to offset the travel costs would be appreciated.

Please RSVP at this link:

<http://tinyurl.com/blum530> or <http://goo.gl/forms/uAXNdKFMSs>

Best,

Event Coordinator

Silicon Valley Chinese Association Foundation

Encl: flyer